Gulshat organized a number of prestigious events in the Principality of Monaco, Switzerland, UK, Europe, UAE and Russia Federation.

Currently Gulshat is a Member of Monaco Economic Board and Founder & CEO of LUXPRO Business Events Company based in Monaco.

Gulshat Uzenbaeva

Founder & CEO

Gulshat has a strong Financial background having worked in the Banking industry for 8 years. From 2009, for three years she also pursued a political career by being elected to the Youth Public Chamber of the City District Council of Ufa, with the Committee on legal affairs. During these years Gulshat organized and conducted social and charity events for children and the underprivileged, combined with her main occupation as Branch Manager of the retail bank, where she worked from 2005 to 2010. Gulshat arrived in the Principality of Monaco in 2011 and continued her banking career in Royal Bank of Scotland Group (Coutts & Co Private Bank), and then followed another one of her passions, entering the Art business and finally accepting an appointment as Gallery Director.

From 2014 on, she was the catalyst and organizer in Monaco each year of successful cultural events such as a Russian Ballet and Opera with up to 2 thousand spectators with Her Royal Highness The Princess of Hanover and other important guests.

Gulshat is a Brand Ambassador and writes articles for several life-style and fashion magazines and luxury blogs, as well as being a special guest at different International Film Festivals, a judge in international beauty competitions and coauthor of a book about the Global Citizen.

One of her last activities as a Producer was a project with H.S.H. Charlene, Princess of Monaco.

As the new CEO of MEB,
Guillaume Rose's objectives are:

- to coordinate and federate parapublic entities as cultural, scientific and sports related to rise their visibility on the international arena.
- to develop international networks with the invaluable input of the ten offices representing 'Monaco Destination' around the world.

Guillaume Rose

Chief Executive Officer of the Monaco Economic Board

Since 21 March 2019, Executive Director General of the Monaco Economic Board (MEB), a non-profit association responsible for promoting the business community in the Principality and actively participating in its development on a local level and abroad.

He returned to Monaco with a Master degree in Film Studies at Sorbonne Paris, in 1997 to work in communications at Société des Bains de Mer. Scaling his way up the ladder, he became head of the department responsible for promoting gaming. After obtaining a Corporate MBA at the International University of Monaco, he set off for Las Vegas and MGM Mirage, where he learnt about job responsibilities at casino-hotel type of venues.

After his return to Monaco, he carried out an audit of all of the reservations and sales departments at SBM Group, and shortly became the Executive Assistant to the CEO before managing the Communications Department.

Throughout his years with SBM, he nurtured links between the latter and the movies, notably by authorising filming for Ocean's 12, Iron Man 2, The Counterfeiters and many others. He also hosted poker tournaments such as MonteCarlo Millions, PokerStars and European Poker Tour.

Driven by a desire to serve his country more directly, Guillaume Rose joined the Principality's Tourism Department in June 2010, as Deputy Director. The following year he became the President of the Monaco Tourist Authority of the Principality of Monaco. One of his main goals were to promote Principality of Monaco as a premium tourist destination and opening up new incoming markets.
